The full-service hotel is situated close to the hub of Florida Road, which has seen a recent revival, a two-minute drive from the three major sports stadiums, close to the Durban Golden Mile, popular beaches and 10 minutes from the Durban International Convention Centre.

Facilities and services include a restaurant, bar and business facilities. The hotel also offers a conference venue that can accommodate up to 30 delegates.

Guy Stehlik, CEO of Bon Hotels, says that the property is a well-timed deal, adding value to the group's offering as well as adding a KZN option for their corporate, government and leisure guests. "This is a very exciting addition to our family," says Stehlik. "Durban - especially the Morningside area - has an incredible vibe and character."

“Our aim is to up the ante on the already established ‘boutique style’ service the hotel offers. We will boost the already dynamic team up to our Bon minimum standards and appoint a sales executive to promote the hotel to our corporate, PCO, leisure, international and government clientele.”
