M&M's Salted Caramel

Mars Multisales Africa Confectionery recently introduced the limited-edition M&M's Salted Caramel.

Available for the first time in South Africa, the button-shaped chocolates are filled with a soft, chewy caramel centre and enclosed in a colourful candy shell.

The new limited-edition snack is ideal as a sweet treat on the go, or to spruce up a birthday cake, cupcakes, cookies or ice-cream.

“Salted caramel is a major trend across snacking categories and the fastest-growing consumer taste in chocolate, so we are excited to introduce South Africans to this delicious combination and hope they are ready to indulge in the new soft and melting caramel flavour,” says Mars Confectionery senior brand manager, Ashleigh Sanderson.

M&M's Salted Caramel is available at all major retail stores nationwide, while stocks last.

Turmeric Tonic Golden Latte

Turmeric Tonic's Golden Latte is an updated take on a traditional Indian beverage, based off an ancient Eastern recipe. The star of the Golden Latte is turmeric, a spice celebrated for its anti-inflammatory, anti-bacterial and antioxidant properties. There are also aromatic flavours of cinnamon, ginger and black pepper.

Packaged as a powder, the Golden Latte is designed to be enjoyed as an easy-to-prepare instant drink, but it can also be added to smoothies and cereals.

Turmeric Tonic Golden Latte retails for R79.99 and is available exclusively from Checkers and Checkers Hyper stores, and all Checkers coffee shops across South Africa.
